THE DEUTSCHE BASKETBALL AKADEMIE

Special.

Ambitious.

And it's all new!

Special.

The new basketball powerhouse in the German youth competition! The German Basketball Academy (DBA, www.DBA-Basketball.de) enables young people to combine their academic career with a professional basketball career. This project aims to include young people from all over Germany and Europe. Star agent and Basketball legend Ademola Okulaja is our official patron. The DBA is located in Bad Aibling near Munich. Another exclusive advantage of the DBA in comparison to other basketball academies, is the variety and wide range of future opportunities for its players.

Within the next few years, the DBA aims to become one of the leading basketball youth programs in Germany, in the long term in Europe. The German Basketball Academy offers two special features: firstly it is neutral because it is not tied to a specific basketball team, thus provides individual career planning for each of its players. Secondly, DBA has one of the greats as a shareholder and patron - Ademola Okulaja!!

Ambitious.

The DBA offers its players the opportunity to combine their academic career (high school graduation, Bachelor's degree) and their professional basketball career (individual support and mediation). We offer high school graduation on the highest possible level in Germany at the Deutsche Sport Privatschule and a cooperating university in Germany as well as the opportunity to achieve the Bachelor's degree in the United States through our Recruiting Camp (www.EBA-Basketball.com). While doing so, players will train twice a day and play in the highest German youth leagues, after or before studying they will be mentored by Ademola Okulaja upon request.
